

JUROR

CAROL
ZALESKI

Director/owner of an advertising agency in downtown Chicago for over 20 years, Carol relocated to California in 1998 and has been an active member of the Southern California art community ever since. Judging, giving demos, curating shows are her passion, in addition to creating art. Most recently, Carol judged an art exhibition in the 2018 County Fair. And for the past four years, she's been Fine Art Director at the Fallbrook Library where she develops and hangs six art shows per year.

Carol is also a mixed media artist traveling from collage to painting and back again. Her work is constantly changing and her paintings are a reflection of the way she sees the world. Carol creates paintings that are very personal but they usually turn out to be universal. She loves mixing paint, crayon, textured papers and discovering surprises she didn't plan in each painting. Carol's artwork hangs in Brandon Gallery in Fallbrook where she has been represented since 1999.

Carol is looking forward to jurying this year's show!

CALL FOR ARTISTS

44th Annual SMALL IMAGE SHOW Prospectus

Gallery 21
Spanish Village Art Center
Balboa Park, San Diego

JANUARY 25 – FEBRUARY 24, 2019

The Gallery 21 SMALL IMAGE SHOW marks its 44th year in January 2019. This celebrated juried exhibition — started by Jim Brown back in 1975 — provides a unique challenge for the artist by utilizing a small image concept. Showcasing San Diego County artists, this event has built in popularity over its multi-year history and is an artist favorite. Over 25% of the artworks are typically sold during the exhibition each year! Won't you join us?
